PRESS RELEASE

The Ramanujan Consulting Club recently held its highly anticipated flagship event, CONSULTRIX 23 from 6th April to 20th April, powered by Grand Thornton and their event partner, The Product Folks. The event boasted a diverse range of engaging workshops, informative speaker sessions, exciting contests, and other enriching events.

Consultrix 23 was officially inaugurated through a series of informative and invigorating speaker sessions held from the 6th to the 11th of April. Esteemed speakers, namely Mr Vidit Garg, consultant at Accenture, Ms Nupur Jain, senior associate at PwC UK, Ms Tanya Singhania, senior manager at American Express and Mr Maulik Mewar, executive director at Goldman Sachs graced the occasion with their valuable insights and presentations.

On April 18th, 2023, the offline events of Consultrix 23 commenced with a lamp lighting ceremony held at the Ghalib Auditorium. The ceremony was followed by a speaker session conducted by Mr. Nitesh Jain, a partner at Grant Thornton, who shared his vast expertise in various fields with the audience. His enthusiastic delivery and insightful perspectives captivated the audience, and a Q&A session followed where students could seek clarification on their queries. Additionally, two competitions were held, namely Fincity, which was a banking simulation competition, and Concord 2.0, which was a case competition that involved participants from various colleges, including IIM Indore and SRCC.

The second day of Consultrix 23 also kicked off with high energy as the event featured influential speakers, including Ms Nikita Malhotra who discussed the process of establishing startups and the various challenges that individuals encounter while initiating them. Ms Urvashi Prashad imparted valuable knowledge on the intersection of entrepreneurship and public policy. Furthermore, Mr Abhishek Sharma provided insights into the experiences one may encounter while working in a consulting firm. Additionally, the event featured a competition named Global Meltdown, which revolved around the theme of crisis management. The competition encompassed three rounds, culminating in the announcement of the winners in the final round.
